Compliments & Complaints

Policy Statement

The right of people accessing our services, including the community and stakeholders of Beyond Housing to provide feedback is a fundamental component of the organisation's overall commitment to promote the rights of all people. Feedback can be logged via our website to safely raise a concern without facing retribution.

Policy Application

This policy applies to all Beyond Housing employees and includes all permanent and casual staff, volunteers, work experience students, management, and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). For the purposes of this document, all parties will be referred to throughout this policy as workplace participants.

Responsibility & Authority

- The Board of Beyond Housing has responsibility for:
 - Ensuring compliance with legal and regulatory requirements at a Governance level.
 - Compliments or complaints involving the CEO will be managed by the Beyond Housing Board.
- This policy is operational and therefore the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is responsible for ensuring:
 - Appropriate and effective policies and systems are in place to operationalise legal and regulatory requirements and therefore implement this policy in accordance with that responsibility.
 - All managers and workplace participants are aware of this policy.
 - Support for workplace participants to undertake their responsibilities under this policy is provided.
- The CEO may delegate specific responsibilities to managers or workplace participants to ensure that the objectives relating to this policy are met.
- Managers and Team Leaders are responsible for informing workplace participants about their responsibilities under this policy.
- All workplace participants are responsible for familiarising themselves with this policy and complying with its requirements.

Policy Detail

Beyond Housing is committed to ensuring all stakeholders have access to information on how to:

- Provide feedback about our people, programs, and service delivery.
- Make a complaint and have it addressed appropriately.
- Access appropriate advocates and external avenues to lodge complaints.

Beyond Housing will:

- Ensure all clients and other stakeholders are made aware of our feedback policy via our website, posters, brochures, and information provided by workplace participants.
- Encourage feedback from clients and stakeholders.
- Record positive and negative feedback and respond in a way that enables us to improve our service delivery.
- Ensure all feedback, including complaints, are handled following the Feedback Procedure.
- Ensure any client or stakeholder providing feedback will not suffer reprisal because of that feedback.
- Ensure that our feedback options are culturally appropriate and safe.

- Accept feedback verbally, in writing, anonymously via our website or social media and will not treat feedback differently because of how it is received.
- Investigate feedback, including complaints, fairly and impartially, following the principles of natural justice.
- Handle all feedback confidentially.
- Offer people alternate methods of providing feedback, such as referral to the Homelessness Advocacy Service, Victorian Housing Registrar, or relevant funding bodies if they are dissatisfied with the way their feedback has been handled.
- Triage all complaints to ensure an immediate response for complaints of a serious nature, e.g., client privacy breach, a complaint relating to child safety or the reportable conduct scheme.

Timeframes for managing complaints

All complaints will be:

- Acknowledged with the stakeholder on the same day (automated acknowledgement).
- Response provided to the stakeholder about the status of the complaint within 14 calendar days.
- Resolved within 30 calendar days.

All timeframes are measured from the date of receipt of the complaint from the stakeholder.

Appealing the outcome of a complaint

If the stakeholder is not satisfied with the outcome of the complaint, they have a right to appeal the decision via the following methods:

1. Speak to the relevant Manager.
2. Speak to the Chief Operating Officer (COO) / CEO or the Board if the complaint relates to the CEO.
3. If you are still dissatisfied with the outcome, you can request Beyond Housing to review its decision.

There may be times when you are dissatisfied with the outcome of a complaint, even after the appeal process described above. The following table outlines who can assist

Reporting requirements

Feedback numbers and comments will be communicated to workplace participants via “The Hub” and to the Leadership team monthly.

Internal feedback reports are provided to the Board every 6 months. The findings/recommendations from the report are used to improve and inform future service delivery.

The following complaints must be reported to the relevant external body:

- Privacy Breach – within one business day to the Department of Families, Fairness and Housing (DFFH)
- Reportable Conduct as defined in the Child Wellbeing and Safety Act 2005. The CEO is required to notify the Commission for Children and Young People of any allegation deemed as reportable conduct within three business days. Refer to Website: CCYP | Notify and update reportable allegations (prescribed forms) <https://ccyp.vic.gov.au/reportable-conduct-scheme/about-reporting-allegations/>

Other feedback methods

The following methods are used to obtain stakeholder feedback and inform service delivery and future planning:

- Satisfaction Surveys
- Client Focus Groups

Where Beyond Housing seeks feedback, clients will be informed of the scope of the feedback, including use, and whether their name will be visible. Consent will be requested where applicable.

Definitions

Complaint	A complaint is defined as an expression of dissatisfaction made to or about an organisation, related to its products, services, staff or the handling of a complaint, where a response or resolution is explicitly or implicitly expected.
Compliment	A compliment is an expression of praise, encouragement or gratitude about a service that is funded, regulated, or provided. It may be about an individual workplace participant, a team, or a service.
Stakeholders	A person who has an interest, concern, or investment in something. Stakeholder includes clients, renters, their family/friends/carer or advocates support agencies and external service providers. This may also include neighbours of surrounding properties. Beyond Housing explicitly accepts the role of a client advocate whether statutory or voluntary, with the consent of the client.
